

The South Dakota Secretary of State, Monae L. Johnson, has reviewed "An initiated Amendment Prohibiting Taxes on Anything Sold for Human Consumption" an initiated Constitutional Amendment to the Constitution of the State of South Dakota. In accordance with SDCL 12-13-26 & 26.1 this office certifies that said initiated Constitutional Amendment embraces only one subject and is an amendment to the Constitution under S.D. Const., Art. XXIII, § 1. Secretary Johnson further states that said initiated Constitutional Amendment is not a revision under S.D. Const., Art. XXIII, § 2.

Dated: April 26, 2023

Monae L. Johnson
Monae L. Johnson, Secretary of State

RECEIVED

APR 26 2023

SD Secretary of State

Filed this 26th day of April 2023

Monae L. Johnson

SECRETARY OF STATE